Senate Simple Resolution No. 11.

Senator Redditt sent up the following resolution:

Whereas, During the past four years the people of the United States have endured a severe depression, resulting in great economic losses, unemployment, and untold hardships and deprivations, and

Whereas, Our beloved President, Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt, recommended to Congress plans for relief of unemployment, and for restoration of happiness and prosperity in the United States, and by virtue of the recommendations of the President, Congress has passed the National Recovery Act and other acts necessary to end the depression in this Country, and

Whereas, To insure the success of the N. R. A. and to accomplish the purposes for which it was enacted, it is necessary that the President, and those under him charged with the enforcement of the N. R. A., have the unqualified support and indorsement of all of the States, and various political subdivisions of the States, and their citizenship;

Be it, therefore, resolved by the Senate of Texas:

First—That we urge the people of Texas to give their whole-hearted support and influence to the President of the United States in assisting him in carrying out the National Recovery Act.

Second—That we urge and recommend to all political subdivisions of the State of Texas and to all State supported Departments, Institutions and Agencies of Government that they cooperate with Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States and that they give to him their unqualified support in the National Recovery Act.

Be it further resolved:

That a copy of this resolution be furnished to the Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States, and the Honorable Hugh S. Johnson, Recovery Administrator.

REDDITT.
